Overview Lessons

This course provides an overview of the Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing (SAFE) Act as implemented by Regulation G. In this course, participants will learn about:

- I. The purpose of the SAFE Act,
- II. The registration and renewal requirement applicable to both financial institutions and mortgage loan originators,
- III. The need to establish policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the requirements of the SAFE Act, and
- IV. The requirement to make the unique identifier (NMLS number) of both the financial institution and mortgage loan originator publicly available.

Participants that successfully complete the course and pass the associated quiz will receive a certificate of completion.
